The ministry of Beverly and Ted Robinson is comprehensive in its scope and relevant to the contemporary relationship issues of these times. Married in 1981, their decades of marriage journey results in a treasure trove of testimony, trials and triumph. They travel nationally and internationally sharing the unfiltered realities and truths of life, living and loving.

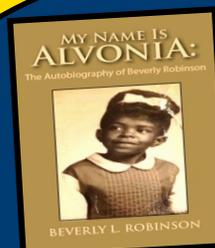

They are the parents of two adult children – Carmen, MD Family Medicine, and Christopher, a veteran of the US Navy and Nationally Certified Surgical Technician. Christopher is married to Veronica (Johnson) – M.Ed, Science Education. All reside and work in North Carolina and are all proud alumni of Pine Forge Academy and HBCU matriculation. Faithful, sacrificial parenting and collaboration with a supportive 'Village' are key components that Beverly and Ted espouse in sharing about family dynamics.

Beverly and Ted are both committed to wholistic well-being – mind, body, soul and spirit. They are Fitness Instructors each with over 15yrs experience of helping people achieve best results in conditioning, weight management, strengthening and body sculpting. Combining fitness and wellness with empowerment and affirmation models serve to optimize individuals' personal development.

Beverly is the author of the notable, "My Name Is Alvonia: The Autobiography of Beverly L. Robinson. As a published author, her work is featured in several magazines and newspapers. Beverly's dynamic ministry includes special programming for victims and survivors of abuse – sexual, physical, emotional and mental. Believing that all women are fully empowered by God to accomplish His will without apology or permission, Beverly encourages all women to utilize their individual gifts and talents in praise & celebration of the awesomeness of God!

Ted fully supports the mission-critical importance of Beverly's special ministry and often provides unique perspective during joint (men/women) forums and to men-only workshops. As the husband of an abuse survivor, Ted shares firsthand experience and techniques on fostering an environment of recovery, restoration and redemption. A balanced insight, direct action, and consensual compromise in domestic relationships are necessary implementations for love to flourish.

Together, Beverly and Ted are a powerful team committed to sharing and caring for those most in need of real, relevant and raw truths of life, living and love. Individually, they can speak uniquely to groups of women and men on the gender-themed issues that are sometimes under-addressed.

A Powerful & Compelling journey from surviving a mentally and emotionally heart-wrenching childhood to achieving Success and Empowerment in every aspect of life and love!

Imelda Hatchett-Mitchell, Born the "baby girl" of five children in the home Of an Adventist minister in Chicago, IL,

Imelda shattered her parent's dreams when she went to Oakwood University where she would meet and marry a divorcee who was raising six children alone. More than 34 years, eight children, 29 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren later, she now resides in Ooltewah, TN with her husband, Elder Bobby J. Mitchell, Sr., retired Regional Director, Pacific Union Conference of Seventh-day Adventists.

Withdrawing from Oakwood after nearly four years as a Religion major, Imelda returned to school 17 years later, receiving her Bachelors of Religion in 1999. She was most recently employed as Service Records Analyst at Loma Linda University Health but since February 3, 2017 has been self employed promoting health and wellness and assisting persons with concerns surrounding converting their homes to Green, weight-loss, hair loss and other health related issues about which she is well versed.

For more than 30 years Imelda has addressed audiences across The United States presenting in venues such as: Women's Ministry, Marriage and Family Life (including blended family ministries and marriage seminars which she does along with her husband), Holistic Nutrition & healthy lifestyle.

Like the Psalmist, David, Imelda is a worshipper! She believes strongly that "Worship is the heart's response to the presence of God." She loves the Lord deeply and desires to share him with everyone she meets!

Alex Horton was born in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. He received a BA. in theology from Southwest Adventist University 1979 and a Master of Divinity from Andrews University 1981. He was called to labor at the Cleburne, Hillsboro, and Waco Texas Churches in 1981. He transferred to Albuquerque and Roswell New Mexico, district where he lead congregations for 5 years, then He took the assignment to pastor in Houston Texas where he pastors six churches. The Horton family move to Dallas, Texas and continued to Shepard the people of GOD. In 2007 Elder Horton begin to make disciples in Birmingham, Alabama, at the Ephesus Seventh-day Adventist Church, and in 2014 he accepted a call to work in Memphis, Tennessee where he is the leading servant at the Longview Heights Seventh-day Adventist Church.

It was in South Bend Indiana he met the love of his life, the beautiful wise and exciting Debra Austin and for 36 years they have been lovers and best friends. GOD blessed this union with two children who are now married, Alex his wife is Rhea , and Geneva her husband is Victor.

The scripture that encourages Minister Horton the most is " I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou should go: I will guide thee with mine eye. " Psalms 32:8. He experienced the indomitable guidance of Jehovah on the mountain and in the valleys of life. All his accomplishments, achievements, and advancements are the occurrences of divine grace and all glory is given to JESUS CHRIST.
